

September 26 & 27, 2020

Stow Historical Society

HARVEST FESTIVAL

11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. each day

Art, handmade crafts, and food will be for sale both days of this event. Free tours of three historic houses and a one-room schoolhouse. Activities for children and adults. See the blacksmith, watch the woodcarvers, join in the apple butter stirring, and enjoy free musical entertainment.

Stow, Ohio is located northeast of Akron, Ohio. The Harvest Festival is held at Stow's Silver Springs Park at 5120 Young Road (east side of the park).

Artists and Craft Vendors Wanted!

Space rental for two-day event:

$50 inside Heritage Barn

$40 outside (bring your own tent)

Application available online at

www.stowhistory.org

Contact shsfestival@gmail.com for more info

September 26 & 27, 2020

Stow Historical Society

HARVEST FESTIVAL

11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. each day

Art, handmade crafts, and food will be for sale both days of this event. Free tours of three historic houses and a one-room schoolhouse. Activities for children and adults. See the blacksmith, watch the woodcarvers, join in the apple butter stirring, and enjoy free musical entertainment.

Stow, Ohio is located northeast of Akron, Ohio. The Harvest Festival is held at Stow's Silver Springs Park at 5120 Young Road (east side of the park).

Artists and Craft Vendors Wanted!

Space rental for two-day event:

$50 inside Heritage Barn

$40 outside (bring your own tent)

Application available online at

www.stowhistory.org

Contact shsfestival@gmail.com for more info